What should you know?

A copy of an Aboriginal customary adoption certificate or an act recognizing an Aboriginal customary adoption outside Québec is a photocopy bearing the seal of the Directeur de l'état civil.

After receiving an Aboriginal customary adoption certificate, the Directeur de l'état civil draws up a new act of birth for the child in question. The present form cannot be used to obtain a certificate or copy of an act of birth. You can obtain a certificate or copy of an act of birth by using the Application for a Certificate or Copy of an Act form, which you can obtain on our website or by contacting us.

The copy of an Aboriginal suppletive tutorship certificate is a photocopy bearing the seal of the Directeur de l'état civil.

Who can be the applicant?

The applicant is the person who applies for a copy of an Aboriginal customary adoption certificate, an Aboriginal suppletive tutorship certificate, or an act recognizing an Aboriginal customary adoption outside Québec.

To protect the identity of the persons whose names are entered on the document, a copy can only be issued to the persons mentioned in the document in question or those who establish their interest, provided there are still rights and obligations between the adoptee and the parent of origin.

The competent authority that issued an Aboriginal customary adoption certificate or an Aboriginal suppletive tutorship certificate, or a person authorized to represent that authority, can obtain a copy of the certificate it issued.
