General Information and Instructions for an Application for a Certificate or Copy of an Act

Do not return this document with your application.

What should you know?

Certificates and copies of acts are official and distinct documents issued by the Directeur de l'état civil relating to births, marriages, civil unions or deaths entered in the Québec register of civil status.

These documents show the information that appears in the original act, exactly as entered and spelled in the register, and not the information provided in the *Application for a Certificate or a Copy of an Act. Moreover, certificates and copies of acts are issued in the same language that the event was registered.

Application for a certificate or copy of an act of birth, marriage, civil union or death

- Certificates and copies of an act for each of these events are obtained by using the corresponding form.
- Ensure that you have a version of the form that is up-to-date in order to avoid any delay in processing your application.
- The version of the form is indicated in the upper right-hand corner, next to its title.
The forms are available on our website or by contacting us.
- You can submit your application using one of our online services, at www.etatcivil.gouv.qc.ca. In doing so, you will pay a lesser fee for your documents, as well as avoid postal delivery times.

Entering a civil status event in the register

It is important to point out that, for a civil status document to be issued regarding a birth, it must first be entered in the Québec register of civil status. An application for a certificate or copy of an act, or an attestation for that event can be processed only once registration is completed. To find out the time limit for entering an event in the register, see our website or contact us.

Canceling or modifying an Application for a Certificate or Copy of an Act

An Application for a Certificate or Copy of an Act cannot be cancelled or modified.

Who can be the applicant?

The applicant is the person who requests the certificate or copy of an act of birth.

To protect the identity of the persons entered in the Québec civil status register, a birth certificate or copy of an act of birth can only be issued to persons mentioned in the act in question or to those who establish their interest.

If the application concerns someone other than yourself or your child

If the application concerns someone other than yourself or your child, your name will not appear in the act in question. You must therefore establish your interest by providing a reason supported by a document, as per the instructions on page 4. The Directeur de l'état civil will assess the reason given.

If the application concerns someone who is deceased

If the application concerns someone who is deceased, the certificate or copy of the act may be issued to the deceased's spouse (by marriage or civil union), son or daughter, or brother or sister, even if they are not mentioned in the act, without having to provide a document supporting the reason given. However, as per the instructions on page 4, they must allow the Directeur de l'état civil to validate their relationship with the deceased.

If the application concerns a minor child

Since the applicant must submit documents that a minor child may not be able to provide, it is recommended that one of the parents act as applicant on the child's behalf.

A parent mentioned in his or her child's act of birth may apply for a birth certificate or a copy of the act of birth regardless of the child's age.

Lawyers and notaries

If you are a lawyer or notary and are completing an application on behalf of your client, you must enter your member number following your surname in Box 1 of the form, as well as your client's file number in Box 10 of the form.

Which document to request: the certificate or the copy of an act of birth?

Before applying for a certificate or a copy of an act, inquire about the type and format of the document required by the organization to which it must be submitted.

For a minor child, we recommend the long-form birth certificate because it states the parents' names. Certain organizations require that this document be provided for a person under 18 years of age.

Type and format	Information contained in the document *
Birth certificate Long-form (recommended) 21.5 cm x 18.5 cm	Surname, given names, sex, date, time and place of birth, registration number, surnames and given names of the parents, document number (since March 29, 2005), date of issue and, where applicable, notation entered in the act since it was drawn up.
Copy of an act of birth 21.5 cm x 26.7 cm	Integral reproduction of the information contained in the act, document number (since March 29, 2005) and date of issue. Note: This document may show information pertaining to several civil status events.

* Information may be missing if the event occurred before 1994.

If the format is not indicated in the application, the long-form birth certificate will be issued.

Enter your surname and given name. This name must match the family name indicated on the photo ID and proof of home address submitted.

As you are not mentioned in the act of birth in question, you must establish why you wish to obtain a certificate or a copy of an act concerning this person and provide a photocopy of an official document to prove the reason given. Use an extra sheet if you need more space to state your reason. However, if the document for which you are applying concerns someone who is deceased and you are that person's spouse, child or sibling, you do not have to provide a photocopy of an official document establishing your reason. Rather, you must enter your date of birth in Box 10, if you were born in Québec, or attach a photocopy of a civil status document proving your family ties to the deceased, if you were not born in Québec.

Section 2: Information on the birth of the person concerned

Box 12 – Surname

Use the family name as indicated on the act used to enter the birth in the register. In cases involving adoption or a name change, enter the family name used after the adoption or the name change.

Complete this box only if the person was born before 1994. Enter the name of the place of worship or parish and municipality (city, town or village) where the religious registration took place, or the name of the municipality in the case of a civil registration.
