

Do not submit this document with the declaration.

What you should know

You must enclose a guarantor's declaration with your application for a certificate or a copy of an act only if you are unable to enclose with your application a valid photo ID with signature.

A guarantor is a person who confirms your identity. The guarantor must not seek monetary compensation for taking on that responsibility.

Your guarantor must meet the following conditions:

- be aged 18 or older
- practice a profession or perform a function that are recognized by the Directeur de l'état civil
- have known you for at least two years and be able to give information on you, for example, your name, age and place of residence

A member of your family or a person residing at your address can act as a guarantor for you if he or she meets the conditions for being a guarantor.

Note

The guarantor's declaration must be sent to the Directeur de l'état civil within 12 months of the date it was signed.
